

„Peace painted by children from all over the world“

We would like to present you this very special work of art created in summer 2000, when children of 103 different nations came to the 1. World Childrens Festival and met KOFI ANNAN in the corner of the three countries – Switzerland, France and Germany.

Inspired on the 6 points of the UNESCO-MANIFESTO for a decade of Peace 2001 - 2010, an Appeal of the Nobel Peace Prize Laureates

Respect all life – Reject violence – Share with others – Listen to understand – Preserve the planet – Rediscover solidarity

The pictures have been transformed in single ceramic tiles. Presented together as a „Peace-Mosaic-Wall“. This work of art will stimulate global thinking, dialogue and tolerance, and can be placed indoors and outdoors worldwide in different arrangements in public places, schools, sporting-grounds, hospitals, airports, fairs and congress-centres.
